Bangalore 18/12/04

My dear Sir

I return with thanks
Mr Justice Ramachandra Iyer's
D.O. received with your kind D.O. of the 5th instant.

If left to himself, the Rangasamiengar can have no objection, if he cannot ask that his full salary leave be kept open for him if he takes at his convenience or pleasure irrespective of the time limit fixed in article 207(i) - He must either take of in (then three years from the date of his transfer to the Chief Court or forfeit it.

But if he is not a free agent in the matter, i.e. if, on account of the exigencies of public service, he is prevented by Government from (in fact) the case within the prescribed period, the case assumes quite a different aspect & becomes somewhat similar to that of an officer recalled & duty from leave (article 142) - here must either let him go, or, if this is not possible, relax the time limit as a special case. Article 207(1) pre- -scribes that compliance with its provisions is within the control of the officer concerned - it obviously did not contemplate a case of the kind we have now to deal with. It is not the case of an officer who has failed that he has been the time limit laid down therein. On the authority of article 4, Govt may not unreasonably so interpret the rule as to enable him the case thereof to within three years

My dear Sir Krishna Swamy.

Our Ayyasamy Iyengar has been pressing me to permit him to avail himself of the privilege leave which was granted by Govt about six weeks ago. I personally informed him that it would be very inconvenient to let him go just now, & I suggested to him that he might act as Vacation Judge for one month during the annual recess of the Chief Court add one month to the two months which he has earned & avail himself of privilege leave for three months during the next cold weather or at any other convenient season. I request you to pass an order of Govt to the effect that Gur Rangoon any Lawyer is not bound to avail himself of leave for two months on or before 15th June 1904 & that he might take leave at any time.

Yours sincerely
A Ramachandra Iyer
